POLPS

Depicting, in a magnificent and early spectacle the utter destruction of a French town under German fire, "The Results of War," a stupendous mechanical production, will be featured at Polp's the last half of the week.
This is not a motion picture, but a reproduction, in miniature, of a great city's fall beneath the onslaught of an enemy force. Battles in the air; the workings of the defense guns; the incendiary aero bombs; and the other conspiracies of modern warfare are shown in operation in this big spectacle.

Theda Bara, famed as "the vampire woman," will be seen in the photoplay feature, "The Eternal Sapho." Based on the famous drama, this film production is in five reels of gripping interest. Miss Bara has a role suited to her unusual talents and is supported by a very adequate cast.

The Briscoe Four, a male quartet of real merit, will present a new repertoire of songs that are sure to please; and Eddie Carr and company will offer a delightful comedy playlet that is replete with funny situations and fairly sparkles with brilliant lines.

Peg Rosedale and company in a singing and talking skit are to occupy an important place in the bill with their comedy skit, while Adonis and his famous dog will complete the program with their novelty offering.

PLAZA

"Susan Rocks the Boat," seems rather a "tame" title for such an absorbing photo-drama as that in which Dorothy Gish and Owen Moore are starring at the Plaza the latter half of the week, but, as the saying goes, one cannot judge too severely from the wrapper. As a matter of fact, few of the plays thus far produced by the Triangle Corps have had so deep a plot and exciting a narrative as is found in this, the latest arrival from the great western studios. Dorothy Gish appears as the pampered daughter of too-wealthy parents and Owen Moore as Larry O'Neill, a gang leader in the slums. The story is presented in five parts and should prove a most interesting attraction.

In addition to the big picture a two part Keystone comedy will be offered.

A Jesse Lasky act entitled "Kiddies Burglar," holds the headline card on the vaudeville program. The mere fact that it is from the hands of that wizard of the producing stage, Jesse Lasky is sufficient to assure most theatre goers that it is the acme of perfection in even the smallest detail and such it is. There are five little tots and two grown-ups in the cast and their efforts should prove a source of unbounded delight to localites during their engagement.

Thomas and Henderson, a pair of colored folk who can sing and dance "to beat the band" will have an important spot on the bill.

Frank Markley, the banjo fiend, is back again with a new and more pleasing repertoire and ready for even greater honors than he won on his previous engagement.

Completing the bill are the Aero-plane Girls in a sensational aerial offering that will send little cold shivers down the spines of the more timid members of the audience.

EMPIRE

"A Million a Minute," the latest five part Metro-play featuring Francis X.
Bushman and Beverly Bayne, will head the all feature program offered this evening at the above theatre.

Thrill follows thrill in this excellently acted and staged masterpiece of the Metro brand and the story is one that will grip and hold attention throughout.

"The Fued Girl," a gripping five part Famous Players-Paramount masterpiece, featuring that ever delightful star, Hazel Dawn, will be the featured attraction at the Empire on Friday and Saturday.

As the title implies a feud exists between two bands, the Haddons and the Bassetts, the inhabitants of the wild and rugged southern mountain regions. The chief bone of contention is the big mountain which lies between them—Iron Mountain. The railroad engineers, discovering the valuable territories lying in the wake of these warring factions proceed to unite them.

Other select and entertaining photoplays will also be shown.
